To whom it may concern.

I was just about to extend the duration of my HSMP visa when the regulations were changed. I suddenly had 2 months to figure out how I was going to stay in the country. Being a freelancer in television I knew it was going to be difficult.

The company who had initially helped with my HSMP visa were slow to help so I moved to Ambler Collins.

Ambler Collins helped me to find another way to continue working and explained the process thoroughly. I was able to relax knowing that I had all the information necessary. Each question I had was answered within the day and I had a lot of questions. They prepared my entire application for me. I simply provided the documentation. Even when making the application itself, Ambler Collins were at the other end of the phone to assist.

I would recommend Ambler Collins for visa advice and assistance to anyone. They were extremely committed and willing to help at any time. I doubt very much that I would be in this country if it were not for them.
