

'The Kiwi Business Hub'

Short term, flexible office space & business support services in Fulham, London (UK)

What is 'The Kiwi Business Hub'?

The Kiwi Business Hub offers short term and flexible office space just off Fulham Road, London. Recently refurbished, air conditioned office space is available in various sizes, with rents starting from just £100 per week.

The aim is to create a cluster of small NZ start-up or established businesses in one shared location. Tenants will benefit from supporting each other and can readily access a reliable range of business support services.

The Kiwi Business Hub is an initiative driven by Mathew Collins and Derek Smail who have more than 50 years of successful business and commercial experience between the UK and New Zealand.
